INTERNATIONAL

1) United States

- The United States announced that it will extend COVID-19 pandemic-era restrictions, known as Title 42, to expel migrants from Nicaragua, Cuba and Haiti caught crossing the U.S.Mexico border back to Mexico.
- The move would block more nationalities from seeking asylum in the United States, and raises questions about the implications of this policy expansion and its legality.
- At the same time, the White House said it would open more legal pathways for migrants from those nations to apply to enter the country from abroad.

2) Public schools in Western Australia

- Now Punjabi is all set to be taught in public schools in Western Australia. The language is all set to be introduced into the school curriculum.
- The Australian government is adopting Punjabi as the newest language after a 2021 census showed that it was the fastest-growing language in Australia with more than 239,000 people using it at home, an increase of over 80 per cent from 2016, reported SBS Punjabi.
